

Trovita Health Science to Present at 2015 New York Venture Summit

Minneapolis, MN – June 22, 2015 – Trovita Health Science – the makers of ENU®, an innovative complete nutritional shake – announced today they will be presenting at the New York Venture Summit on June 24, 2015 at the Digital Sandbox Network Event Center in Manhattan.

The 15th annual New York Venture Summit, presented by youngStartup Ventures, is the premier industry gathering connecting venture capitalists, corporate VCs, angel investors, technology transfer professionals, senior executives of early stage and emerging growth companies, university researchers, incubators and premier service providers.

Trovita Health Science will be among 50 of the country's hottest emerging companies to attend the summit and are presenting in advance of an upcoming expansion capital investment round, intended to accelerate the growth of the ENU brand – and help Trovita prepare for the launch of an innovative delivery system for enteral nutrition, anticipated to occur in the second half of 2015.

Will Brown, CEO of Trovita Health Science noted, "Our team at Trovita Health Science is building significant momentum for our flagship brand ENU, which is now recommended by top healthcare professionals and available in a growing number of retail locations nationally. As we grow the company's portfolio of products, we are thrilled to offer a preview of our patent-pending innovation for enteral feeding during this summit. Furthermore, we are honored to be a part of the top 50 emerging companies who were selected to make a presentation."
